

Clarence Thomas Miller Sr

August 21, 1927 - October 2, 2016

Clarence Thomas Miller (Jim) was born on August 21, 1927 in Bridgeport, West Virginia. He was the son of the late Mae Thicklin and Charles Miller. He grew up in the Clarksburg, West Virginia where he was educated in the Clarksburg Public School System and a graduate of Kelly Miller High School. Jim, like many men of his generation, answered the call to service by enlisting in the United States Army. During his tour of duty he received many awards and commendations including the World War II Victory Medal. He completed his tour of duty and received an Honorable Discharge. Jim was united in marriage three times and from those unions 8 children were born. He went to work for the Pittsburgh Police Department after 21 years of dedicated service. After retirement, he relocated to California and embarked on a second career with the U.S. Postal Service where he worked for an additional 10 years before retiring for a second time. Even in retirement Jim managed to keep active and busy; he worked out and repaired computers, played cards, was an avid reader and had a keen interest in politics. He was active, independent, loved life and enjoyed his family, especially his role as dad and pap-pap. He had an infectious smile and was a friend to everyone that he met,

On October 2, 2016 Clarence Thomas Miller Sr., departed this life. He us preceeded in death by his parents; sister: Sophia Mann; daughters: Debbie Miller, Clarinda Yound, Tina Miller, Erin Mae Miller and Toni Miller.

He leaves to cherish his memory beloved wife, Marion Miller; son, Clarence (Sylvia) Miller Jr., of Los Angeles, CA; 2 daughters: Sarah Mller of New Kensington, PA and Danielle Miller of Leechburg, PA; 11 grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren; other relatives and good friends too numerous to mention.

Comments

“ I'm one of his granddaughters by his daughter Clarinda. She's shared stories of her father describing him as a very witty man. She also had that gift of being witty. Those stories will remain in my heart Always.

Celeste Dean - October 23, 2018 at 07:16 AM