

Eugene Claymond Mayo

December 9, 1962 - January 9, 2019

Eugene Claymond Mayo, known most affectionately to us all as “Clay,” 56-years-old of Glen Hazel, Pennsylvania, departed this earthly life on Wednesday, January 9, 2019 at his home in Glen Hazel, PA. Clay was born on December 9, 1962 in McKeesport, PA to Claymond Eugene Mayo and the late Patricia Ann Phillips who preceded Clay in death. While Clay never married, he loved all of his nieces and nephews and he played an extremely active role in raising his Godson Chavaz Fischer, whom he dearly loved. Clay attended McKeesport High School and was raised in Payne Chapel A.M.E. Church in Duquesne, Pennsylvania.

Clay loved his friends and family dearly with no delineation. He was extremely jovial, never meeting a stranger in his life. His sense of humor and zest for life made even the most uncomfortable situations tenable.

Clay is survived by his brothers Anthony Leon Mayo and Greg LaMont Rollins both of Trenton, NJ, Theresa Yvonne Mayo of Las Vegas, NV, Sheldon DeWayne Mayo of Richardson, TX, Raumont DeShawn Mayo (Erika Stansbury Mayo, spouse) of Rowlett, TX, Michael DeWayne Simmons (Ann Marie Cholewinski, spouse) of Murrysville, PA, Kellie Mayo-King of Atlanta, GA, Claya Janeice Pressley of Austin, TX and Kyra Renee Mayo of Pittsburgh, PA along with 14 nieces and nephews and 13 great nieces and nephews. Also, to cherish his memory, Clay leaves behind his Aunts: Eleanor “Jean” Murtaza, Vesta Bivins, Carol McFarland, and Patricia Vereen along with his Uncle Richard Frank Phillips, all of whom were special and cherished by Clay. Clay had a host of friends (his second family) who loved him as though he were a brother to them (Sharon Fischer and Ramona Krista most notably as his honorary sisters). He will be sorely missed by all, but his memory will ever be etched in our hearts and minds.

“ I only found out today that Eugene passed away, in writing him out a Christmas Card. He lived next door to a friend of mine in Wilkinsburg, going thru depression. Tho Eugene's mom was very ill in the hospital that holiday season, Eugene was knocking on my friend's apartment door, insisting he accept a delicious plate. My friend, Frank, constantly said Eugene was the Best neighbor ever. To be going thru one's mom serious illness at Thanksgiving & Christmas. Yet cook & fix

“ Praying for the family, my extended family. I will miss seeing Clay at family functions. When i worked Downtown years ago, I would see Clay sometimes and he would always ask about my mother-in-law, his Aunt Jean and his Cousin Melvin and and our children, always. We would hug and I'd go on my way. He is at peace now and we must be at peace with that, but we miss you and will continue to miss you Clay.

“ My deepest sympathy to the friends and family of Eugene (as I called him). I met Eugene many, many years ago and was saddened to see that he had passed away. I am glad to see that he was loved by so many.

Rest in Peace Eugene.

“ My sincere and heartfelt condolences to the Mayo family in the loss of their brother Clay. I have so many good memories I shared with him over the years which I will forever cherish and be grateful for. May you rest in peace and know that you will be forever missed and in our hearts forever! To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Renee Hawkins (Dickerson)
