

Anna Mae Clark

February 16, 1930 - January 10, 2018

Anna Mae Featherstun was born on February 16, 1930 in Meadville, PA. She was raised in Meadville and after moving to the area attended the city's Perry High School. She soon met Robert Lee Clark and made the decision to dedicate life to him in a union that would last 47 years. In addition to raising her family, Anna worked outside of the home.. Never a stranger to hard work, she initially did housekeeping for several prominent families in Squirrel Hill before eventually gaining employment at Central Medical Pavillion. She was a faithful dedicated employee and remained there until she retired. "Gram" as she was affectionately called by her grandchildren and those who loved her was a longtime member of Brown Chapel AME Church on the Northside and was an active member until her health no longer permitted her to do so. When she could she like nothing better than a trip tp the casino or a good bingo game, She spent her last years of her life in the loving care of her daughter, Rena.

On January 10, 2018 after a life well lived, Anna Mae Clark went home to be with the Lord. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband, Robert Lee Clark, Sr.; parents: Ethel Featherstun and William Moses Carper, Sr.; sister, Sarah Carper and brother, William Carper, Jr.

She leaves to honor and cherish her memory, devoted children: Rev. Willard Clark, Stephen John (Belva) Featherstun, Robert Lee (Elizabeth) Clark, Jr., Tyrone (CaroK)Clark, Rena (John) Halsel; 39 grandchildren, 36 great grandchildren and other family members too numerous to mention. She is already missed.
