

Anna May Logan

December 4, 1929 - August 5, 2017

Anna May Conyers was born on December 4, 1929, in Homestead, Pennsylvania. She was the daughter of the late Susie Mae and March Conyers, Sr. She and her siblings were raised in the at the time thriving community of Homestead where she was educated in the Homestead Public School System and went to graduate from Homestead Senior High School. She continued her education and went on to become a Licensed Practical Nurse. Anna spent the greatest part of her working career as a LPN at West Penn Hospital where she was a loyal and faithful employee until retiring. Anna was united in marriage to Raleigh Logan. There was no children from their union but she was a special aunt to her many nieces and nephews. She and Raleigh lived in East Liberty for a time before moving back to Homestead where she was an active member of Second Baptist Church. She was a quiet unassuming individual who was always willing to lend a hand where ever needed and her calm influence impacted all those that she came in contact with. She enjoyed being at home and watching game shows with Raleigh. As she lived, Anna Mae quietly departed this life on August 5, 2017. She is preceded in death by her parents and brothers March Conyers, Jr. and Fred Conyers, Sr. She leaves to honor and cherish her memory devoted husband, Raleigh Logan; nieces and nephews: Mary Conyers, Fred Conyers, Jr., Charlie Conyers, Duane "LeeLee"Hawkins; Greats: Deon Conyers, Daria Conyers, Kennan Allen, Kayla Allen; great greats, cousins and friends too numerous to mention.
