“ Gordon Schaemar Tippett and Family you were blessed with a remarkable woman humble grateful and elegant ... She always carried herself with Grace and Dignity. She loved and was loved and oh so proud of her family as you were of her. Her quiet strength and patience was a blessing to many a troubled heart. She was always up for a good telephone conversation. I remember many a Christmas Day after dinner visit, gathering at Mary Joiners house Ann and Mother Woods and that infamous Coconut cake ... Mr Joiners special and homemade sausage and the dirty rice we'd laugh for hours. It's that time again what a heavenly reunion. RWG Grandma Ann. You work on this side is done. Well done thy Good and faithful servant Well done.

“ Dear Gordie and Family:

I'm so sorry for the loss of your "dear" mom...May she Rest in Eternal Peace with your grandparents, dad, Brian and Rachel in heaven. Your mom was always so gentle, nice and kind. Heaven has surely received an ANGEL on 12/23/21. You all have my condolences and sympathy.

I'm praying that God will grant you, Joann and Julian comfort, healing and peace in the coming days....Amen.

*Sincerely,
