

Anthony "Tank" Cunningham

April 8, 1916 - July 2, 2014

Anthony Cunningham son of Bennie and Matilda Cunningham was born in Union South Carolina.

His family and friends called Anthony "Tank". Preceding him were his brothers and sisters Bennie, Thomas, James, Annie Bell, Jessie, Estell and Ethel (twins), Della, Josephine, Alice, Matilda, Emma and Columbus.

For about five years Anthony lived in Baltimore, Maryland and worked with his brother-in-laws Thomas Gross, Archie Young and Wilford Henderson. During this time he met and married Pearl and they had one son named Anthony Jerome.

After several years of marriage Anthony and Pearl divorced and he later moved to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania where he met and married Eloise. Anthony and Eloise were married in Steubenville, PA in 1950 for more than sixty years. They enjoyed traveling to exotic places in and out of the country. He enjoyed attending the annual Cunningham Family Reunions. Anthony and his wife hosted the first Cunningham Family Reunion in Pittsburgh, PA in 1975.

Eloise, Anthony's wife died April 17, 2011 and his son died on September 8, 2011. Anthony was a successful businessman and devoted husband. Anthony leaves to cherish his memory his one grandson, Micheal Marlowe Hines, two granddaughters: Terry Phillips Maith and Crystal Pearl Ferguson, seven great grandchildren, three great-great grandchildren, devoted niece; Isabella Selmon, nephews; Ben Alston and Aaron Burrell, and many other family and friends.
