

Brenda Carolyn Littlejohn

April 6, 1947 - October 9, 2015

Brenda Carolyn Miller was born on April 6, 1947. She was 1 of 7 daughters born from the union of the late Gwendolyn Rice and Bossie Miller. "Juicey" as she was called by family and friends alike, and her sisters were raised on Whiteside Road, a then closeknit community in the Hill District section of the city. She was educated in the Pittsburgh Public School District and attended Fifth Avenue High School. In her youth she attended Macedonia Baptist Church and participated in the many activities provided by the Ammons Recreation Center. In 1964, Brenda was united in marriage to Woodrow Wilson Littlejohn, Jr. and this union produced 1 son, Man. Brenda, never a stranger to hard work, was employed by Healthcare Laundry with over 30 years of loyal service to her credit. She then went on to work and eventually retired from the General Cleaning Co. She was fun loving (and quite the jokester) family oriented individual. She loved family functions and get togethers and shared a very special relationship with her sisters. In her spare time she enjoyed going to the casino, getting her hair done, a good meal, and the occasional glass of red wine. Brenda was also very active in the Senior Citizens group in her building until her health no longer permitted her to do so. On October 9, 2015, the Lord called Brenda Carolyn Littlejohn home. She leaves to honor and cherish her memory her devoted son with whom she shared a close relationship, Woodrow W. (Man) (Shari Jenkins) Littlejohn, III; her 6 loving and special sisters: Beverly (Clifford) Brown, Jacquelin Thomas, June Woodson, Sandra (William) Littlejohn, Charlotte Watson, and Donna

(Stanley) Henderson; special niece, Dana Edmonds; many nieces, nephews, and good friends too numerous to mention.
