

Bruce T Weaver

October 24, 1968 - September 28, 2023

Bruce Terrance Weaver, born on October 24, 1968, in Pittsburgh, PA was the beloved son of Audrey Weaver of Homestead, PA and Robert Lee of Braddock, PA.

He received his formal education within the Steel Valley School District, where his passion for sports took root. Bruce's early years were a blend of immersing himself in comic books and playing & excelling in football, basketball, and baseball. His heart forever loyal to his hometown and especially the Pittsburgh Steelers, a team he cherished and represented with pride. This love for sports inspired him to become a coach and mentor to the youth of Homestead. He often coached the youth during the summer with Homestead's Project C.H.U.C.K. basketball league or in the fall with the Steel Valley Midget Football league. Bruce's guidance and encouragement will forever be remembered by the infectious laughter, impeccable style, and natural charisma that earned him the reputation of a true ladies' man.

Bruce was preceded in death by his loving mother, Audrey, his father, Robert, his brother, Carlos, and his sister, Tracey. He leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories to be carried forward by those who hold him close to their hearts. He is survived by his three beautiful daughters, Britney, Breanne, and Brooke, and his adored grandboys, Bryce and Breyden. His brothers, Terry, George, and Wayne Weaver, his sister, Pamela Massey (Charles Sr.), his cousin/sister, Jamie Miller-Knox (George Jr.), his cherished niece Sherelle Weaver, and his admired nephew Greg Harris, stand as pillars of support in this time of loss. Bruce's memory lives on in the hearts of his numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and many cherished friends.

In remembrance of Bruce Terrance Weaver, let us celebrate a life that touched so many, a man whose laughter and love will forever echo in our hearts.

“ My friend. Good memories and good times playing football, hanging out, and at the gym. We were at the gym just a couple weeks ago. As always, he was so positive and proud of his family and children. He was stronger than ever, benching 300 pounds. Shockingly sad news to hear of his sudden passing. Condolences to his sister Pam, brothers and family.

“ My earliest memory of Bruce is the first day of kindergarten with Mrs. Dreshman. We cried together all day because we wanted to go home. He always wore a red turtleneck and was one of my first friends and always on friendly terms over years. After moving away, I would visit family in Homestead and often see him out and about, always with a smile and wave. Last saw him when he stopped at my mom's house, days before her passing last summer. Even then, I could picture him in that red turtleneck making me feel a little less afraid on that first day of school.
Sincere condolences to all family and friends who are coping with his loss.
