“ Chipper, God gave you to a treasure among thousands. Your mother, Callie, was steadfast, unmoveable; always abounding in the work of our Lord. She lived with an eternal smile on her countenance. Callie dealt with all people equally. Her love was without dissimulation. Her life was lived on the foundation of God's love for man in Christ Jesus. She will be glad to see the face of Christ her saviour; the One you've come to know in the household. He is your joy even now. She will experience moreso now the joy he gave to her to give to you and to others.

To those who mourn because this mortal gift is gone, rejoice because of the eternal gift she leaves behind. It will not be diminished.

It was profitable to know Callimae Jefferson. May God bless all who knew her.

“ Aunt Callie: My piano teacher, hairdresser, choir director, Sunday school teacher, advisor, and friend. I am blessed to have had you in my life as a guiding light. Rest well; the choir has a new voice lifted in praise. I love you.

“ Aunt Callie, there is no way that I can say good-bye, but I will say see you again. Your smile and your tender touch was all that was needed to soothe this young heart and continues to soothe it today. I thank God for you and your love. May you continue to rest in eternal peace. Always in my heart and loved for all eternity.
