“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ My Name is Mathew A. LaCroix, I met Carrie about 3 years ago when a friend and I started a Bible Study at Ottawa Ridge Community (Carries Residence in Cols Oh.). Carrie Loved our Lord Jesus Christ and had a strong personality when it came to her opinion about the bible. I loved that about her. I am a Personal Fitness Trainer and Carrie came to a couple of fitness classes of mine, she would give it her all while making jokes about how she would not be able to move the next day. I visited Carrie in the hospital 2 years ago when she had a few problems. I am a Steelers fan and she shared some stories with me about the area. I never saw her happier then when she spoke of family and home. Carrie will be missed by me and a lot of the residence of Ottawa Ridge. we still keep her in our prayers. Today I keep her family in our prayers God Bless all of you. 2 Corinthians 5:1 For we know that when this earthly tent we live in is taken down (that is, when we die and leave this earthly body), we will have a house in heaven, an eternal body made for us by God himself and not by human hands.

God Bless you Carrie. Thank you God for allowing her to bless my world and my walk with you.
