

Clarence Yarbough Jr

April 15, 1938 - December 10, 2017

Clarence Edward Yarbough, Jr. aka "Bubba" and affectionately known as "Yarbo" was born on April 15, 1938, in Pittsburgh, PA. He was 1 of 14 children and the oldest son from the union of Clarence Edward Yarbough, Sr. and Lorraine Ozell "Bootsie" Pryor. He and his siblings were raised in the Glenwood section of the city and he was educated in the Pittsburgh Public School System, graduating from Gladstone High School. Soon after he went to work beginning his career with the B&O Railroad. Clarence was united in marriage to Kay Frances "Paulie" Sanders and together they raised 3 children. He loved family activities and time with his friends. He was well known in the community and loved by many. Clarence was a giving and loving man with a larger than life personality who loved to make people laugh and when he walked in a room with that familiar "bloop, bloop, bloop" ... the party began!

Clarence Edward Yarbough departed this life on December 10, 2017. He is preceded in death by his parents; son, Bruce; and ten siblings.

He leaves to cherish his memory beloved children: Ernest Sanders, Pamela (Kevin) Price and Dorrie Yarbough; 5 grandchildren: Brittany, Amber, Ambrosia, Donte and Lance; 5 great grandchildren: Quadir, Misty, Mylon, Quinci and Carmello; siblings: Nancy Wiggins, Marvin (Debbie) Pryor, and Patricia Pryor; good friends: Michael "Felo" Johnson, Alfred "Mo" Reese, Monica Reese, and John White; nieces, nephews, cousins, and other good friends too numerous to mention. He us already missed.
