

Deneen Ann Bluefort

August 27, 1957 - August 31, 2020

Deneen Ann Bluefort (Pippy) was born on 08/27/1957 at Homestead Hospital (Homestead PA) to Leroy Bluefort and Gladys Francis Bluefort (Garner). Deneen grew up in the area and the times of the Steel Mills. She graduated from Homestead High school in 1975. Deneen continued to further her education and pursue a career as a flight attendant where she received her certification in Business and Travel Industry in 1976. Deneen was blessed with a beautiful baby girl with her one and only child from her first love in 1977 and also started a career at UPMC Presbyterian Hospital as a unit secretary where she worked hard for the 35 years and made sure it went her way on unit 8G are you would know about it. She then decided to stay home but not for long before she found herself working again at Fifth Avenue place with the Huber Group from 2014 till current until becoming ill. Deneen was always the life of the party and you could hear her before you even seen her. She enjoyed her grandchildren which she loved very much. She also enjoyed casino trips and scratch offs along with her seafood and cooking shows. She enjoyed life to the fullest. She proceeds in death by her mother Gladys Bluefort (Garner). She leaves to mourn her absence father Leroy Bluefort her one and only daughter Jatta Bluefort her siblings sisters Yvette Garner, Yvonne Garner brothers Leroy Bluefort JR and Douglas Wade Bluefort. Her grandchildren Natayshia Saunders, Naeshaun Saunders, Nyron Foy, Nyrae Foy and Nia Foy. Two great grandchildren Khamari (Bug) Corley and J'Ari Saunders and not to mention her fur grandchild Kevin (dog) who she loved as well.
