

Dolores J Batch

June 8, 1934 - May 17, 2025

Dolores J. Batch, born on June 8, 1934, was the daughter of the late Howard and Hannah Geraldine (Anderson) Sterling. She grew up on Blaine Hill, Elizabeth Township, PA, and graduated from Glassport High School and the University of Pittsburgh.

She attended Allen Chapel in Elizabeth in her youth, and then St. Paul A.M.E. of McKeesport became her church home while she raised her children. Later, she joined the Calvary United Methodist Church of McKeesport where she served as Trustee, Sunday school teacher, and was on the Pastor Parish Relation Committee and the financial board. She helped with many church events and spearheaded raising over $5,000 for a well in Ghana, Africa which was named "The Jasper Well" in honor of her grandfather Jasper Sterling, a well that is still thriving today. She is currently a member of the Garden City United Methodist Church.

Dolores always said that her "God gift" was sewing. Her love for sewing started in childhood and never left her. Her sewing abilities touched not only her family, friends, and church, but also her loyal customers throughout the United States, and even into Ghana, Africa. All were blessed by her talent. She was also an assistant teacher, then a teacher for the Louise Child Care Center of Pittsburgh, the McKeesport Child Care Center, and the Homestead Child Care Center.

She was a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Iota Chapter, the NAACP, Elizabeth Women's Auxiliary of IBPOEOW (Elks), and Pi Beta Psi Sorority. She was also a dedicated volunteer at the Meals on Wheels in McKeesport.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Howard and Geraldine Sterling, husband, Charles E. Batch, son, Charles E Batch II, daughter Denise J Huntley, sister Janice Dismond, and brothers Howard A. Sterling, Boyd A. Sterling, and Gordon Sterling.

She is survived by three brothers, Leslie, Joseph, Dean (Sterling), one sister, Cam Fine, her children Cynthia (William) Perkins, Franklin Village, MI, Kimberly (Noble) Hardy, Monroeville, PA; grandchildren Jessica (Andre) Newman, Chicago, IL, William (Gabrielle Abinion) Perkins, Royal Oak, MI, Ernest Jacob and Eric Huntley, Lakewood, CO, and Dawn (Michael) Middleton, Ontario, CA, Kriston (Monique Horshaw) Ryan, Philadelphia, PA, Tawmi Holmes, Pittsburgh, PA, Charles E. (Kellie) Batch III, Dunbar, WV, Oronde Batch (Ellen Lewis), Fredericksburg, VA, Rena Batch (Denny McDonald), McKeesport, PA; ten great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

“ I met Dolores at her grand daughter Jessica's bridal shower. Jessica is married to our son Andre. Dolores was warm and embracing. She was witty and funny. During the pandemic she surprised me by sending me masks which she sewed. That was so kind and touching.
Our sympathies go out to the family. We will keep you foremost in our thoughts and prayers.

“ My Dearest Godmother,

You truly redefined the term Godmother and put meaning into that word. As mothering never ends, your Godmothering never ended. Because of you, when asked to be a Godmother, I think long and hard: Can I do this? You are my measuring stick.

From Christmas gifts (Yes, I was the Christmas morning alarm.) to my wedding dress, you created everything with love and made visions come to life (such a lost art). But nothing could compare to the times that you were there to talk me off the ledge, be my rock when I needed it most, or to simply tell me I was doing a good job. Words will always fall short when trying to describe you. God truly blessed me beyond imagination by bringing you into my life. Thank you!

I will love you forever!

“ I grew up next door to Delores and Charlie. I used to babysit Cindy, Kim and Denise while she sewed. She taught me how to sew but I was truly an amatuer next to her fabulous creations. She was truly an artist! We reconnected a few years ago and kept in touch with letters, cards and calls. Im going to miss her humor and quick witt and receiving her lovely letters filled with love for her family and keeping up with mine. Love Cousin Erma
