

Edward Lee Miller Jr

December 9, 1957 - July 26, 2023

Edward Lee Miller Jr., son of the late Jean A. (Orr) Miller and Edward Lee Miller Sr. passed away on July 26 after a long battle with kidney and heart disease at the Veterans Administration hospital in Pittsburgh. Edward grew up in Homestead, PA and attended Steel Valley H.S.

He was a member of the Steel Valley marching band in which he proudly played the drums. He enjoyed music and soon after graduation from high School he formed a small combo and would perform musically for various functions and parties.

Edward served in the U.S. Army for a tour of duty and in his retired civilian life he began a career with the New South Associates, an organization that studied various cultures through the excavation of artifacts.

Edward was employed as a geologist and an archeologist assistant. He took great pride in the work he did and would oftentimes share with us some of the interesting artifacts he would find on some of his excavations.

Edward remained at his position until he developed kidney problems which eventually required him to obtain a kidney transplant. Edward loved music, sports and he loved to travel. he also loved apple pie.

Edward was preceded in death by his mother, Jean A.(Orr)Miller who passed away in 2020., his father, Edward Sr.

He is survived by his brother, James M. Miller and Kevin D. Miller and Aunts Patricia A (Orr) Gera, Bette L Orr, Maryellen (Orr)Arnold and Lois E. (Orr) Lewis who reside in Munhall and Homestead, PA. He leaves to mourn a host of friends and relatives,

“ The Foy Family stands with the Miller Family in our hearts! If anyone from the class of '76 was destined to be the 'First Geologist from Homestead', Ed, was that guy! I have the fondest memories of him and his sense of humor all throughout our school days. Rest in heaven. Yvonne Foy
