

Edward Peters

May 25, 1960 - January 8, 2015

Edward T.C. Peters was born on May 25, 1960 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He was the son of the late Edward Peters and Janice Pullie and had two siblings; the late Gregory (Greg) and Tammy Peters. He grew up on the Hazelwood section of Pittsburgh and was educated in the Pittsburgh Public School System.

Edward was united in marriage to his first wife, Jamie Lee and they were blessed with three children; the late Shannon; Darnesha Martin and Leslie Peters.

Edward was united in marriage to his second wife, Mona Wilson on August 9, 1977 and became stepfather to La Tasha Wilson and the late Robert James also, in 1977 Edward was baptized at New Bethel Missionary Baptist Church where he enjoyed singing in the choir.

Those who knew Edward (Ed) knew that he was competitive; he enjoyed sports, detailing cars, spending time with his children, and making people laugh. In his quiet time he enjoyed relaxing, watching old movies, fishing, listening to oldies, and cooking.

He leaves to mourn his passing and to cherish his fond memories of him the two women that loved him, his wife Mona and Jamie Lee; son, Edward Peters, Jr. daughters: Erika and Leslie Peters, Darnesha Martin and stepdaughter, La Tasha Wilson; sister, Tammy Peters; grandchildren: Amaii, Edward, Robert, Caia, Keyshawn, Delgado, Carter, Dania, Kyaier, and a host of other relatives, nieces, nephews, and good friends too numerous to mention.
