“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ I miss my friend so much. We always called each other. She made my day! No matter how bad she felt, she would make her appointment with Anthony. Then our God scheduled her an appointment for no more pain. God Bless Gilliard , Martin & Small

“ In everything give thanks.....

Although Saturday, July 27, 2013 was a life changing event for the Gilliard family, we rejoice in knowing that God has called another one of His angels home.

Death is never an easy thing but for those of us who are saved we can find comfort in knowing that our loved one is in the presence of the Lord. Heaven is rejoicing!

I thank God for 19 years with my mother-n-law Mrs. Emma Jean Gilliard. I will truly miss her.

She was a woman who truly loved and served her family faithfully and for that we are grateful.

Please continue to pray for the strength of our family and we will be praying for you.

Blessings....
