“ Illustrious George L. Buckner, 33°. Past Grand Master exemplified the true virtues of freemasonry. He was an upright man, loyal, dedicated and sincere in every way. His deep baritone voice could light up a room whenever he sang and could be equally soothing to troubled gathering. Always caring for those around him, family, friend or stranger...Brother Buckner was always the same. Forever the Steelers fan, his compass always pointed to north to a Steelers victory. Our sincere condolences to his family and loved ones. May God comfort you during this time of bereavement and in the days to come!

“ My friend, my neighbor and most of all a loyal dedicated man to everyone who has had the pleasure of being in the same space with you. When returning to the most outstanding organization my Mom, Dad, and older Brothers introduces to me at a very young age has always been rewarding and still remain with me today. We love you until we meet again .

“ George was always a good person to be around. I first met George when I was in the power stations and he used to come in to record certain items owned by the company and we would talk and reminisce a great bit. R.I.P. My good friend. The family has my deepest condolences and prayers.
