

George T Coleman

April 7, 1947 - July 25, 2021

G. T. Coleman, known as "Butch" or as I loved to call him, my "Pookie", was born April 7, 1947 and passed at the tender age of 74.

*Butch was born in Braddock to the late George and Flossy Coleman. Butch was the eldest of surviving siblings - sister Dorine (Sam) Coleman and brother Jeffrey Coleman and wife Charlotte, Cheryl Richardson, and Francine Daye.

*Butch graduated from West Mifflin High School and was drafted during the Vietnam War. He served in Germany in the Armed Forces for two years and in the Navy Reserve for one year.

*Then Butch went to work at US Airway and Fluor Marine Propulsion (Bettis). Butch met Elenora "Tiny" at a bus stop in Homestead fifty years ago, and they were married for forty years. They were blessed with a beautiful baby girl, Kenya Lynn Coleman, who was a Daddy's girl.

*He will forever be loved and missed by a host of family members and friends.

“ We worked together on many heavy jobs at bettis, Butch always made work fun and could out work us younger guys. He had that deeeep voice and had some sayings that had all of us in tears with laughter. I'm so glad to have known Butch and will always cherish memories of our time as friends.
