“ Eric Durant was a kind and smart young man I met Eric in Cory Playground playing Basketball

He could Hoop He had a long range jump shot almost like radar the ball would go in the basket He had uncanny jumping ability to dunk and he could rebound very well.He could communicate on the court very well with his teammates. He was a team player. He had skills He could have made it to the NBA

My name is Buddy Johnson Jr and I had played a lot of basketball in the bronx and Harlem I loved to play with and against Eric be cause of his tenacity to play basketball on the Homestead playground courts we had some basketball battles that had many crowds watching us Eric was a great basketball player and kind hearted soul as a young man and he grew up as a great friend to me

He was an inspiration to me to pursue basketball as a professional player

He will not be forgotten

My life began in the summer Cory playground in Homestead Pa.

A tribute to Eric Durant
