

Henry "Smooth" Moore Jr.

February 16, 1931 - March 28, 2018

Henry (Smooth) Moore Jr. was born February 16, 1931 in Keystone, West Virginia, to the late Henry Moore Sr. and Elmira Lowery. He passed away peacefully at home on Wednesday, March 28, 2018. As a young man, Henry moved to Pritchard, Alabama and later moved to Monticello New York. He joined the Army, and after basic training he was sent to Germany and then to fight in the Korean Conflict. After serving in the Military, he and his sister, Eleanor and mother moved to Homestead, PA where he worked at the Homestead Hospital for 10 years. A couple of years later he started his own Asphalt Company (Moore Asphalt).

On December 23, 1973, Henry joined the Second Baptist Church, Homestead, Pennsylvania, under the pastorate of Rev. Donald P. Turner where he served as a Trustee, and sang in the choir, we were all moved when he sang the song "My Secret Closet". He was also a sexton for a period of time. Henry loved to hear Rev. Turner preach, go for walks, listen to the "Oldies But Goodies" songs, being around his grandchildren, and being a jitney driver.

Henry was preceded in death by his parents, his sister, Eleanor Gleen and her husband Howard. He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife Barbara of 53 years, daughter Sherice (Duane) Coles, son Darren (Misty) Moore, 16 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren and 2 on the way, brother and sister-in-law Deacon and Linzy Snead, and a host of other family and friends.
