“ In deepest sympathy to my McDonald family and friends. Holly, I will miss you so much because you were more like a little sister than a cousin. I will cherish our long conversations about finding and including family members. I will miss your smile and the way you used to tease me for not always taking you with me when you were younger. Most of all, I will miss your hugs and love.

Reggie and I take comfort in knowing you have made peace with God, so we are confident you will be okay. To Tara, Rayshawn, Dustin, and Whitney, please accept our heartfelt condolences. To Ricky, TJ, Eric, and Lori, know that we share in your loss.

2 Timothy 4:6-8:

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing."

~ 2 Timothy 4:6-8

*Humbly and prayerfully submitted,
Your Loving Cousins,
Marcia and Reginald Houston*

“Holly, you carried a quiet strength,
even when you doubted your own worth.
You thought love passed you by,
but your life was a thread of love
woven into the hearts around you.

When I faced my hardest valley,
you prayed me through the shadows.
Even in your own pain,
you chose to lift me with faith and kindness.
Your prayers were not forgotten—
they became light on my darkest nights.

You may have struggled to believe it,
but you were deeply, endlessly loved.
We saw your goodness,
we felt your care,
and we carry those gifts still.

Now heaven holds you in peace,
free from doubt, free from sorrow.
And we, who remain,
rise with gratitude—
for your prayers, your love, your life.

Rest gently, dear Holly.
The love you gave is eternal,
and today we honor you.

“The Lord is close to the brokenhearted
and saves those who are crushed in spirit.”
— Psalm 34:18
