“ Homer was a truly good, loving person.

An outstanding member of the community who strived for excellence in everything he did. Being a husband to Ursula, a father, a police officer, a leader in the community, a peacemaker and a God-fearing Christian.

He will be missed not only for the roles he played as described, but for the roles he unknowingly modeled for others and never even realized.

May you rest in God's love until we meet again Homer!

Homer Craig is an Angel sent to Blind Rehab. He was an Exceptional man and treated all the nurses with respect and kindness. I called him last month because he sent the nurses a Valentine Bouquet. Such a kind gesture and as pleasant as ever to us. We will miss his smiling face and positive personality. BRC nurses
