“ Oatie.

You have been a ray of sunshine in this dismal world. I don't think you knew how many friends you had here and how many people cared for you. Everyone is hurting, missing you. There haven't been many laughs, hardly any jokes, no conversations; just sadness since you left us. You had such a kind, happy soul. Never complaining even when you were having a bad day. You taught us so much and always made us laugh. Mr. Oatmeal. Rest in peace.

❤️ Connie. "Miss Con"

“ Hello.....I knew Howard as Petey, when came thru to fix, repair or help out, he always had a pleasant greeting...he was more than a client, he was my friend.....I can remember him sitting in his favorite chair in living room watching TV and sipping coffee.

“ Oatie, as he was affectionately called at our dialysis clinic, was the de facto mayor of the clinic. He knew everyone here and took it upon himself to introduce himself to all new patients. We loved him as if he were a family member and we miss him dearly. The memories of his antics here will keep us laughing for years to come. He was one of a kind. ”
