“ Imani, I just learned of your tragic passing. I was your Art teacher at Propel Homestead. You were quiet and so creative...when you expressed yourself through your artwork and writing, your light shined the brightest -- you were so wise beyond your years. I send light and love to your family and friends, may they find peace remembering the special soul you are.

“ I'm saddened by the news of your passing. When you were in fifth grade at Propel, you were one of my favorite students. Seeing your beautiful smiling face made every day special. You were one of the brightest students in the class. I keep going back in time to remember if I did enough to let you know how special you were. I'm sorry that you are gone. Rest with God and the angels, Imani.
