

Joseph Martin Jenkins Jr

January 31, 1949 - July 20, 2020

Joseph Martin Jenkins, Jr. (affectionately known to family and friends as "Joe Joe") was born on January 31, 1949 in McKeesport to the late parents of Joseph Martin Jenkins, Sr. and Madeline Acie Jenkins. Joseph graduated from McKeesport Senior High School and Point Park College in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He was a former member of Bethlehem Baptist Church in McKeesport, PA. Joe was involved in various sports like football, basketball and baseball. He worked at United States Steel for over thirty years, where he retired as a Human Resource Manager. He loved to go to his trailer at Scottyland Camping Resort every weekend. He loved jazz music, going to concerts, and most of all loved being with his family.

On July 20, 2020, the Lord called him home. He leaves to honor and cherish his memory his caring and devoted children: Carla (James) Johnson, Joe III (Chala), John (Patty), James David Jenkins, goddaughter: Stacia Young; very special niece: Sona Sanford; grandchildren: Courtney, Jalen, Jared, Kevin, Jayson, Joelle, and John Jr. two sisters: Kathi Sanford and Gina (William) Jenkins Scott and three of his lifelong friends; Deacon Gerald "Puddin" Grayson, Caleb "Dicky" Leggett and Deacon Ronnie Walker. He is preceded in death by his father Joseph Martin Jenkins Sr., mother Madeline Acie Jenkins and sister Denise D. Jenkins.

Joe was an awesome neighbor and friend. My sister and I grew up with Joe's sons, so I knew the family well. I never left the neighborhood, so Joe and I remained friends. We shared a love for Smooth Jazz music and would often exchange CDs or talk about our favorite artists, and we even went to a few concerts together (Brian Culbertson, Boney James, and Jonathan Butler come to mind.) Joe was also my "go to" man whenever I needed tools! If I needed it, he had it -- it might take him a while to find it, but he was always happy to lend me tools and offer advice on whatever project I was working on. He was such a sweet, friendly person, and I will miss him.
