

Laura N. Arrington

December 7, 1949 - January 2, 2018

Laura Nadine Arrington was born December 7, 1949 in Braddock, Pennsylvania. She was the daughter of Joseph N. Arrington and Bertha M. Darwin Arrington. "Deanie", as she was affectionately known by, grew up in Whitaker where she was educated in the West Mifflin School System but graduated from the city's Peabody High School. After graduation, she attended both Muskingum and Carlow University. She was employed by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board retiring in December 2016, with over 30 years of loyal and dedicated service. Laura was a quiet and reserved individual. Family was always first in her life and she was a loyal and devoted friend. In addition to being an avid sports fan she loved dogs, enjoyed reading, collecting cookbooks, preparing gourmet meals and the following poem is a tribute to her father written at the time of his passing.

"Atlas" The world regards him without awe, A working man who earns his pay,
There is no one to plead his cause. He pleads his own and makes his way.
He holds no fantasies of life, The rich shall sin, the poor atone. The earth upon his shoulders rest. He stood aloof, adept, alone.

Laura Nadine Arrington departed this world on January 2, 2018. She is preceded in death by her parents and sister, Sheila. She is cherished and lovingly remembered by her sister, Melva; brothers: Joseph and Leland; sister-in-law, Patricia Arrington; niece, Tasha Armstead; nephews: Joseph, Stephen, Leland, Jr., and Brian; Great nieces and nephews; a host of cousins and good friends.

“ I have so many memories of Laura including being at her house and making her watch Madonna marathons on MTV but one that stands out most is when I was going out with friends and without asking she handed me 20.00 just so i had a safe way home. She was a kind thoughtful woman and i'll cherish my memories of her.
Rest In Peace

“ A friend gives hope when life is low, a friend is a place when you have nowhere to go, a friend is honest a friend is true , a friend is precious, a friend is you.. I will never find anyone like you ever again in my life time. With you gone it is like a day without light leaving feelings of sadness and pain. I love you like a sister and I am a better person for having known you. I love you Laura. My heart is left with a hole that I can never fill. Rest in peace.dear friend of mine.
