“ Grandma,

I will miss hearing you say "HAAAAAYLO Miss Turnbo"!

I will miss 'sample' cake on Saturday night and 'cleaning' the beaters and bowl. I am blessed to have those memories and impart to Kendal my love of baking.

I love you a bushel and a peck and a hug around the neck!!!

“ Mom,

You taught us the "the joy of the Lord was your strength." During trying times over the years, you triumphantly declared "I am not going to let the situation steal my joy! Your strength gave me strength. Thank you for sharing your faith and showing us the way to find our strength in, through and because of our Lord Jesus. You are missed but always remembered with love and joy. I celebrate you by passing your joy forward to your grandchildren and great grandchildren!

I was blessed to have Mama with me for seven months last year! We traveled, we visited friends and family and the whole time she never stop sharing her gift of "Love"! Her love will sustain me.

“ Mom,

I miss our daily chats so much... there are days when the pain seems unbearable. But then I rejoice in the fact that you are with God and getting your well deserved rest after a lifetime of being his humble servant. You and Daddy had 64 years together on earth, and after 11 years without him, you and your sweetheart are together again for eternity. You were a good woman, and shining example of living a Christian life. The two of you inspired us, loved us and taught us kids well, so the siblings and grand children are pulling together as you expected!

You are a "tough act to follow" but I will try to continue leading my life in the way that made you proud. I so miss hearing your "...Hello Dr. Pressley..." Rest in peace.. say Hello to Daddy, Tuda, Uncle Bunk, Aunt Luden and all the others for me.

With Love.. Your Baby,

Madelyn Pearline
