

Mark "Hubba Love" Harber

June 28, 1957 - February 13, 2017

Mark Harber was born on June 28, 1957 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He was the 5th of 7 children from the union of the late Betty Jean Gray Harber and Theodore E. Harber, Sr. "Hubba" or "Uncle Hubba" as he was affectionately known by to family and friends alike, was educated in the Pittsburgh Public School System. He accepted the Lord at an early age and in his youth was a member of the Hazelwood Presbyterian Church. He attended South High School and served in the U.S. Marine Corp. On January 1, 1982 he was united in marriage to Cheryl A. Graham. He loved her dearly and they were a unique and extraordinary couple. Family first and good friends were the most important things in the world to Mark and his home was always open to all. His house was 1 River Stadium or Steeler Nation Headquarters and on any given Sunday that is where you would find family and friends gathered to watch his Pittsburgh Steelers play and enjoy Mark's home cooking. All were welcome because food, drink, music, and black and gold pride were always plentiful. Mark was a pillar in his beloved Glen Hazel Community and he helped raise a village. As cooking was his passion, he could be seen at any given time in his backyard grilling, listening to his oldies, and making everyone laugh. If Mark could have been paid for his jokes he would of been a millionaire but was wealthy beyond riches with the love he gave and received. On February 13, 2007 Mark Harber departed this life. He is preceded in death by his parents; 2 sisters: Denise D. Harber Kellem and Betty Jo Harber; and brother, Charles C. Harber.

He leaves to honor and cherish his memory his beloved wife and soul mate of 35 years, Cheryl A. Harber; children: Davinia R. Cunningham, Cherish L. (Todd Clark, I) Harber, Kayla M. Milton and Mark Charles Harber; 4 grandchildren: Jada C. Thornton, Malaya L. Harber, Brayden W. Lloyd and Todd K. Clark II; 3 brothers: Theodore E. (Dorothy) Harber Jr., Michael C. Harber and Brent B. (Elizabeth) Harber, sisters-in-law: Cynthia L. (Larry) Motten and Theresa Coles; brothers-in-law: Christopher D. (Deborah) Graham and Clifford Wood; nieces and nephews who were as dear to him as his own children, other relatives and best friends who shared the best of times with him. His presence is already greatly missed,

“ To The family, my deepest sympathy...EVERYONE who knew Hubba was blessed. I will cherish my last interaction with him....beautiful sunny day, Steelers are in the playoffs. I am in the Waterfront, Hubba calls out from a parked car...we share conversations, hug and a kiss...his last words to me were "I Love y'all Babe". I waved and blew him a kiss..."Love you too Babe" I will hold on to that.....
