

Nadine Thomas

December 31, 1954 - April 20, 2014

Nadine Thomas was born on December 31, 1954 in Homestead, Pennsylvania. She was the daughter of the late Eddie Belle Morrell and Walter Thomas, Sr. She was raised in Homestead and in her youth faithfully attended Clark Memorial Baptist Church under the pastorate of the late Rev. Edgar P. Tunie, Sr. and the late Rev. Donald A. Tunie . Educated in the Homestead Public School System, she was a 1972 graduate of Homestead Senior High School. After high school, she attended and also graduated from the Community College of Allegheny County. Nadine immediately was employed by the County of Allegheny and was still in their employ at the time of her passing. She had 34 years of loyal and dedicated service to her credit, as an accountant.

Nadine had a quiet and unassuming personality and she was selfless. She always put others before herself, and she was honest to a fault; always wanting to do the right thing. She kept her accounting skills sharp by preparing tax returns and she loved to shop and puzzle games.

On Sunday, April 20, 2014, after a brief illness, Nadine Thomas departed this life. She is preceded in death by her parents and brothers: Curtis and Jackie Morrell.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children: Joi Thomas of Philadelphia,Pa; and Jamel Thomas of Homestead,Pa; sister, Elaine Ward of Atlanta, Ga; nephew, Brian Morrell of Detroit, MI; special friend, James McCoy; dear friends: Minnie Jones, Hazel Branch, and Dolores Cunningham; her childhood chums: Florine, Lynn,Nancy, and Linda; and other family and friends too numerous to mention.
