

Nyanzel Wilson

January 17, 1934 - January 14, 2016

Nyanzel Randolph (Nye) was born on January 17, 1934 in Winchester, Virginia. She was the fourth of fourteen children from the union of the late Robert Randolph and Viola Finley. During her early years the family relocated to the Uptown section of the Hill District. Nye was educated in the Pittsburgh Public School System and attended Fifth Avenue High School. She did not complete her high school studies as she went to work to help support her other siblings.

On August 24, 1954, Nye was united in marriage to Albert Wilson and this union would last for 42 years and produce four children. She lived for her children, always putting them first. She was kind, loving and generous. In addition to raising her family she also worked full-time for many years as an operating room technician at Magee Hospital. Nyanzel was very quiet and spiritual. She enjoyed doing very simple things: word puzzle, picture puzzles, watching TV, bowling, cooking, and eating out. She loved all dogs, especially her beloved Coco.

On January 14, 2016, after holding on until her daughter arrived from San Diego, CA, Nyanzel Randolph Wilson went home to be with the Lord. She is preceded in death by her husband Albert T. Wilson, Sr.; son and daughter: Dorian Wilson and Fatima Wilson; brothers: Austin, Adolph, Rudolph and Lorenzo; sisters: Delores, Lucille, Constance, Beatrice, Patricia and Belinda. She leaves to cherish her memory beloved children: Albert and April; siblings: Orlando, Harry and Elvira; 5 grandchildren, 14 grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and other family members and friends too numerous to mention.
