place all the time.

On March 11, 2017, Oscar W. Underwood, Jr. departed this life. He is preceded in death by his father, Oscar W. Underwood, Sr. and a brother, Clayton Worthy.

missing the man respect in his presence in when I always respected you. It was because of that mutual respect we never had one argument. I learned how to tie a tie simply by seeing you get ready for work everyday....I will always remember you pulling up smiling with a cigarette on your lip in that all black caddy with the windows down bumping James Brown....I remember those countless talks about the Steelers....I'll even remember that time some dude tried to get out on my mom over some money to fix the washing machine and even in your mid 40s you stomped a mud hole in that man..... Then there were those days I would come downstairs to get something to eat and you would say "Dog, I heard you creep in the house at 6:00 in the mornin'" with a smile. You “ My deepest sympathy to the Underwood family in the loss of their Son, Father, Brother, Uncle Pie. I cannot listen to an Isley Brother song without thinking of Pie. He would always be playing one of their songs when we were attending birthday parties for Neicey when we were kids. May you rest in peace with our Lord and Savior.

“ Farewell for now dear brother-in-law. I can only imagine the reunion going on in heaven right now with you, "The Man", "Boopie", Unc Lawrence and the rest of the Underwood clan. Words cannot express the sadness in my heart and the shock of losing you so unexpectedly. You all have a great hallelujah good time til I get there. Have a peaceful rest in God's care. You all are sorely missed.

To the family, God is too just to make a mistake. To be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord. With much sadness of heart, I pray strength for us all to be receptive to God's will. May He meet each of you where you are and supply every need. May you find comfort in His care. Love to all.
