Paul Edward Ogden, Jr., was born July 8, 1935 in Waynesburg, Pennsylvania. He was the first child of Paul Edward Ogden, Sr., and DeVaunte Elmira Ford-Ogden.

At an early age, he was baptized at Bethel AME Church in Waynesburg. He gave his life to the Lord at an early age, and was active in the church all of his life. As a child he was also a member of ' The Ogden Singers ' taught by his mother DeVaunte it featured his siblings Rodger, Dolly, Carl, Bert & Gerald. They toured the tri-state area sharing a sermon in song for audiences in person, and on the radio.

Paul was the first college graduate of the family. He graduated from Wilberforce University in Xenia, Ohio in 1959 with a B.S. in Sociology. He then went on to earn a Master's Degree from the University of Pittsburgh. He was employed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a social worker for over 20 years.

Child of God, husband, father, grandfather, he devoted his life to his family. He taught his son & grandsons what it meant to be a parent, and a man. He instilled in them a strong work ethic, the value and necessity of an education, the importance of placing your trust in God. Yet, he always found time for his favorite pastime - fishing
