“ I am so grateful for the friendship we shared growing up. One of my fondest memories was the night he, his wife, and a few others came over to my house to play a game called “Court.” He stood trial, and we all laughed until our sides hurt. That evening was full of joy, laughter, and his incredible spirit shining through the kind of person who could make everyone smile.

Even though he left quickly, I will always remember his kindness, his humor, and the way he reached out to me when I was sick, showing love and care without hesitation. I didn't get the chance to pray for him like he prayed for me, but I know he felt my love and gratitude. Rest in peace, my dear friend. Your laughter, generosity, and spirit will always live in my heart

You talking about a funny, loyal and loveable person and please never sleep on his intelligence. You could brighten anyone's day with your spirit. Always willing to get into trouble with me. I keep going back on FB and looking at your picture and going into messenger reading the last words you said to me, fittingly we both said, "Love You". I'm smiling but I'm crying because I won't ever see you again. Love you Raymond A. Still

I didn't know Ray long but I git to know him over a period of almost two (2) years. I knew him as Papap to Amir and Zyi. He took and picked them up from Day Care. I knew him to be a great loving husband to his beautiful wife Simone. I was saddened to hear he was passing. I will remember the convos we shared and keep his beloved wife Simone and her babies in my prayers.
