

Reid Alexander Pryor

December 22, 1948 - October 28, 2013

Reid Alexander Pryor affectionately known as Reidy was born on December 22 1946 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania to the late Reid Alexander (Sonny) Pryor and Lorraine Harris Yarbough Pryor. He was raised and spent his entire life in the close proximity communities of Glen Hazel, Glenwood, and Hazelwood. He was educated in the Pittsburgh Public School system where he attended Burgwin Elementary and Gladstone High School.

Although he made his living working in the labor industry throughout the mid 60's and 70's for employers like the B&O Railroad, Omslear Wrecking Company, and Keystone Mailing his true passion was for antiques and collectables which inspired him to start his own business. He owned four trucks and had his own crew of workers that he taught the art of "SCRAPPING FOR GREEN". Reidy was referred to as Fred Sanford around the neighborhood. He loved to host family gatherings and share his wisdom. He was a father figure to many and always had his heart and door open.

Scrapping was not his only love. In 1981 he was united in marriage to Deborah Kovacs and out of that union God blessed them with seven children

On October 28, 2013 Reid Alexander Pryor departed this life. He is preceded in death by his son Evan Reid Pryor; three brothers: Wilbur, Donald, and Norman; and six sisters Janice, Phyllis, Yvonne, Arlene, Linda and Tina.

He Leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife Deborah Rose Pryor; two daughters Alexandra and Angel Pryor; five sons Reid JR, Jason, Isaiah, DeAngelo Pryor, and Edward Robinson; nine grandchildren Maleeka, Sarah,Michelle,and Morgan Pope; Jason, Lajaya, and Lorenzo Pryor; Maurice, Campbell, and Brooklyn Cole; four siblings Nancy Yarbough Wiggins, Clarence Yarbough, Marvin and Trisha Pryor; nieces, nephews, aunt, uncles, cousins, other family members and good friends too numerous to mention.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.
