“ My condolences to the whole family and friends. I grew up with Rich in the village; he and my brother were the best of friends. We used to go to Rich's backyard, listen to his boom box, and watch him moonwalk with his old man's comforter on in amazement. I have so many good memories of Rich; he made it hard on us dark-skinned guys. He will be missed, never forgotten.

Smilin reading this..he told me all about his boom box and moonwalk when he was in his late 40's-early 50's. He loved that boom box. Lol Thanks for reminding me.

*Thinking of you today.
You tried many times but the grip was too strong. You're free now. Until we meet again, may God hold you in His love.*
