

Robert Lamont Hill

October 12, 1953 - June 1, 2018

Robert Lamont Hill entered this world on October 12, 1953 to parents Myrtle Magwood and William Monroe Hill who have proceeded their son in death. Robert grew up in several communities but called Homestead his home. He graduated from Steel Valley High School (Homestead High) in 1973. He attended several colleges including St. Augustine's in North Carolina, Edinboro University in Erie, PA and Community College of Allegheny County majoring in social work. Robert first received Christ at Second Baptist Church of Homestead and later joined the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church of Duquesne. He loved the Lord and described his church as "home" and believed he had found the right church family with which to worship. Robert loved children, and many remember his days as their camp counselor, afterschool teacher or bus driver, his last position was with Propel School of Hazelwood. Between those years he worked for Children's Hospital and Three Rivers Stadium and other cleaning services. Robert is survived by his wife Denise Turner Hill; three sons Robert, Jason and Matthew. Their wives Tiffany Hill and Emily Hill. He also leaves behind 8 grandchildren, Jason Bland, Jourdahn Williamson, Jaidyn Williamson, Jason Hill, Jr., Robert Hill Jr., Rolasiah Triplett, Mackenzie Hill, and Madelyn Hill. Also left behind to mourn are his brothers and sisters; Geraldine Hill Robinson, William Hill, Lawrence Hill and Joanne Hill, nieces and nephews Leslie, Brian, Nicole, DeWayne, and a score of great nieces and nephews.
