

Ronald Raymar Carter

March 13, 1987 - October 3, 2016

Ronald Raymar Carter was born March 13, 1987 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He was the son of Shaye Lynn Carter and Ronald Sims, Jr. "Poe" or "Woo" (he was known to friends and family by both) grew up in the Hazelwood section of the city. He was educated in the Pittsburgh Public School System attending Burgwin Elementary, Prospect, Middle School, and Carrick High School. He loved sports and in his youth played midget football for Hazelwood Cobra's and little league baseball for the Hazelwood Florida Marlins. Poe was the father of three children and he was totally dedicated to them. He loved his children dearly and shared the same close and loving relationship with his family. He was generous, kindhearted, and caring. He loved to cook and of course was a Pittsburgh Steeler fan. Suddenly on October 3, 2016 Ronald Raymar Carter departed this life. He is preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Kathryn (Kat) Carter.

He leaves to cherish his memory his precious children: Trey, Cam'ron, and Dior Carter; beloved mother and father: Shaye Lynn Carter and Ronald Sims, Jr; siblings: Ria and Ronika Carter; Andrew, Thomas, Chelsea, Andre, and Shamar Sims; grandparents: Ronald Sims, Sr, and Joanne Crumpton; aunts: Tomicka and Linda Carter, Michelle and Raynelle Carter, and Mary Alice Dent; uncles: Kevin, Michael, Donald and Edward (Denise) Carter; special friends: Naomi Malone, Jamie Bright, and Tiffany Steels; and other friends and family too numerous to mention. He is already missed.
