“ One week ago today, I got the call I was dreading the most... I wasn't ready, but I knew you were; you were tired... I rushed to be by your side and I was there with you until your last breath... I love you so much, words can't describe... You were the true definition of a strong, caring, loving (in your own way) mom... You loved helping everyone and it shows with all the outpouring of support we received thus far... I miss you already, but I know you are so happy to be reunited with so many of your friends and family... Kiss my mom for me & tell her all about us... Thank you for stepping in and doing an outstanding job; you are the real MVP... Until we meet again, RWG my Sweet Angel 🙏🕊️🙏

“ Ms. Ruth I am surely gonna miss you. I met you and it was like we knew each other for yrs. I thank you for all the talks and advice you shared with me. GOD takes all the angels when it's time for y'all to go back home. We cry, be sad, and all that, but I choose to smile and remember the happy times and that bright light in your eyes. I will always miss and love you. Until I see you on the other side be good. ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ Ma.... You are my Rock. You have taught me so much throughout my entire life. You taught me how important it is to read and just read different things absorbing so much knowledge on many different issues. I continue it and it has helped me throughout my life being able to understand many different situations and conversations in life. Whats really amazing is how your mind was so sharp even up to your last minutes of your time here on earth. You are sorely missed mom. I love you Ruthiebabie

“ My heart completely broke when I heard of the passing of Ms. Ruth. Words cannot express how much she meant to me. I was a total stranger and she loved and accepted me like I was her own child. She was a really good to me and her grandson Raheem. Those Christmases that we would spend in Pittsburgh are some of my fondest memories. Unfortunately Raheem and I will not be able to be there for the services. My thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family. I love you all.

Shawn,

Peace often begins with an act of kindness... Thank you and Raheem for expressing yours to us during this difficult time... Your thoughtfulness and expressions of sympathy will always be remembered...The plant was beautiful and Grandma loved you & Rah, but I wanted to make sure you knew I appreciate your thoughtfulness...

“ Visiting with aunt Ruth and my cousins Noonie & Spud are part of my good early childhood memories. From what I understand, she was kinda partial to me because I was the first of my mother’s 3 sons, after my mom had 3 girls. My mom and auntie were more than just sisters, they remained close friends, even after we left Pittsburgh. I’ll never forget your genuine love for your family, and your beautiful smile. I love you auntie, and I’ll see you later.
