

Taisha Dinyce Davis

October 27, 1974 - March 21, 2018

Taisha Dinyce Davis was born October 27, 1975 in Pittsburgh, PA the most adorable child of Vernetta (Davis) Singletary and Alfred "Skip" Dudley. Tay was educated in the Wilksburg School District and attended CCAC studying Social Work for Early Childhood Development.

She had a heart for helping others and if you needed a place to stay she took you in, never asking for anything in return even though it would have made it easier. Her passion for caring for children led her to working for the Wilksburg School District as a teacher's aide and later for several daycares in the infant/toddler rooms. Tay often spent her own money to bring in healthy snacks for her class. Favorite past times were playing board games with the kids or sitting together on her bed talking for hours. If the lights were out in a store she'd have them all together playing games to not think about the storm. Tay was an awesome cook known for her potato salad and the pineapple upside-down minis. She'd stay up after a full day at work and cook all night. Memories of Taisha's life will forever be cherished by: Mother, Vernetta Davis Singletary, beloved children Cyndi and Taylor Davis, a d Gerald Dixon II, Maternal Grandmother Wilma Delaney, Aunts Sherron (Don) Stevens and Alecia Gibbs; Cousins Dayna Gibbs-Bowser, Wayne "Tony" Jones, Alaina Gibbs Hump0hries and Ronelle "Rocky" Jones, Granddaughter Chy'Na Taylor, half-brothers Todd and Quinn Berry, Devoted Best friend Chuck Davis and a host of extended family, her "work family", lifelong friends and all those she met and touched along the way.

Taisha was preceded in death by her maternal grandfather Henry L. Davis and Step-father James Singletary.
