

Timothy James Williams

August 18, 1957 - November 23, 2015

Timothy James Williams was born on August 18, 1957 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He was the son of the late Penelope Williams and James Jones. Tim and his siblings grew up in the Hazelwood Section of the city where he was educated in the Pittsburgh Public School System and was a graduate of Gladstone Senior High School. He also played football during his high school years. After high school Tim furthered his education by enrolling in the nursing program at Connolly Vocational School and he later attended the Dean Technical Institute where he receive his welding training. He also did a stint in the military. On April 13, 2013 he was united in marriage to Debra O'Leary and loved and embraced her children as his own. Tim loved to cook for the family, putter around the house, and he faithfully studied the bible. He was very spiritual with a deep and abiding faith in the Lord and total acceptance of His will. He had a smile that would light up a room and seemed to know someone wherever he went. His late employment was with Advanced Refractory Technicians in Carnegie where suddenly while on the job, on November 23, 2015 the Lord called Timothy James Williams home. He leaves to cherish his memory beloved wife Debra O'Leary; devoted stepchildren: Alicia, Whitnee, and Henry Turner, Jr.; the light of his life, granddaughter Ariana; brother, Phillip (Tori) Jones and sister, Charlene Jones-Moore (Joe); other family and good friends to numerous to mention,
