

Valerie Bose

January 1, 1953 - July 10, 2015

Valerie Bose was born on January 1, 1953 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She was the second oldest child from the union of the late Dolores Johnson Bose and Daniel A. Bose, Sr. She and her siblings were raised in the New Homestead section of the city and she was educated in the Pittsburgh Public School System and a graduate of Gladstone High School. She continued her education at the Sawyer Business School in Pittsburgh.

Valerie, with her strong work ethic, worked in the healthcare profession for over 40 years. She was employed at the Charles Morris Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Squirrel Hill for over 21 years, Kane Regional in Glen Hazel for 15 years and Mercy Hospital for 5 years.

In 1973 she was baptized as a Jehovah's Witness and she always had hope and faith in God's promise as stated in Revelation 21:4. She was also totally devoted to her children and grandchildren. Her family was the most important thing in her life and she loved them dearly. Valerie also enjoyed dancing, music and travel.

Valerie Bose departed this life on July 10, 2015. She is preceded in death by her parents and sister, Dorothy M. Bose

She leaves to honor and cherish her memory beloved children: Latel Smith, Tamara Smith, and Marshall Cotton; grandchildren: Asya Smith, her oldest grandchild who she cared for, nurtured and played a pivotal role in raising, Chyanne Smith, Lanyia Smith, Cayah Smith, Marshall Cotton, Jr., Aaron Smith, Deandre Poston, and Amara Smith; great grandchildren: Aerie and Jaden Smith; siblings; Beverly Bose, Daniel Bose, Izola Brown, Vanessa Culbreth, Theresa Bose, Anthony Bose, and Nathaniel Bose, adopted daughter, Shelean Walker; best friends: Charlotte Grissom, and Gary Jean Williams; nieces, nephews, other relatives and good friends too numerous to mention. She will be missed by all.
