

Vincent Edwards

November 25, 1953 - July 17, 2021

Vincent Edwards was born November 25, 1953 in Homestead Hospital to Carrie & Vernon Edwards. Vincent came into this world on the heels of his older twin brother, Vernon. The family resided on Glenn Street in Homestead, Pennsylvania, a close community. Vincent attended and graduated from Homestead High School Class of 1971.

Vincent was the first African American Drum Major of the school band. Anyone that had an opportunity to see him perform can attest that he was the original OG of drum major. He set the precedent for Battle of the Bands.

Vincent was an honor student with attending High School. Upon high school graduation, Vincent attended Urban University, Vincent was the father of Vincent Lamar Edwards, Dante Hall and Tomique Harris. During his lifetime, Vincent was employed at Mesta Machine Shop, Port Authority, and retired after 20 years of service at Duquesne University.

Vincent enjoyed life, and liked to have a good time; dancing & partying was his thing to do.

Vincent was preceded in death by his father Vernon Edwards, Sr., his brother, Vernon Jr. and sister-in-law Yasmin Edwards.

Vincent leaves to mourn his passing, his loving and devoted mother, Carrie McKinney Edwards, two sons; Vincent Lamar Edwards (Natalie), Dante Hall (Erica) and one daughter Tomique Harris. 12 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren, one brother; Earl Edwards, Sr., & his wife, Rochelle, two nieces, one nephew. cousin Marvin McKinney and his family.

We as a family can rejoice in knowing that Vincent knew the Lord as his Savior and he's rejoicing in his eternal home.
