“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ A Note From Wilbur

“My Last Request”

*Please don't say that I gave up, just say I gave in.
Don't Say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.
Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best.
Just say I tried to do what was right, to give the most I could, not to do less.
Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do.
I want no more than I deserve, no extra, just my due.
Please don't give flowers or talk in a harsh tone.
Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God, I've made it home.
Don't talk about what could have been, it's over and done.
Just see to all my family needs, the battle has been won.
When you draw a picture of me don't draw me as a saint.
I have done some good; I've done some wrong, so use all your paint, not just the bright and light tones. Use some gray and dark, in fact, don't put me down on canvas, but paint me in your heart.
Don't just remember the good times, but, remember some bad times.
For life is full of many things some happy and some sad,
But if you must do something, than I have one last request,
Forgive me of any wrong I've done, and with the Love that's left
Thank God for my soul is resting.
Thank God for I've been blessed.
Thank God for all who loved me and Praise God whom loved me Best!*

*From Family and close Friends
We love you and will miss you*
