

William " Zip " Felder

June 12, 1961 - May 17, 2021

William E. "Zip" Felder was born on June 12, 1961 in Homestead Pennsylvania. He was the son of the late Patricia "Tish" Burwell Felder and Ordlee "Kilroy" Felder. He and his siblings were raised in a Christian home. Zip was educated in the Steel Valley school system. While growing up in the Homestead area, he was affectionately known as "Zip" and "Co Man". He loved sharing about historical facts and had a passion for dogs. He would always share his life experiences with his nieces and nephews; they would always talk about Uncle Zip "dropping knowledge".

He loved watching and cheering on all of the sports teams of the City of Pittsburgh. His side hustle was washing cars for family and friends; and he always did an exceptional job.

In 1979 Zip joined the United States Army. He was employed by the Life Works Adult Skills Services, and the Southside Hospital where he was on the janitorial staff. Zip was a hard worker and performed his jobs to the best of his ability.

When anyone saw "Co Man", they were greeted with a smile or one of his hardy laughs. He also was very close to his siblings as well as his nieces and nephews. On July 6, 2015 Zip experienced the highlight of his life, when his daughter Patricia was born; he beamed with pride at how smart she is and always showed exuberant joy at her existence.

He leaves to mourn and cherish is memory his six-year-old daughter Patricia M. Felder and dear friend Linea Jones; two brothers Reverend James D. (Jou-al) Burwell and Aaron Felder; three sisters Min. Connie Burwell, DeV Vaughn (William) Baker III, and Deborah Williams.

Zip also had five nieces, nine nephews and a host of great nieces and nephews who loved him dearly.

His presence will truly be missed; he will always be in our hearts.

Done by the order of the family.

“ My dude; "Billy Coe" or "Zip" much respect, love, and just pure homeboy admiration for his innocent and contagious ability to laugh, joke and talk that sh lol...Now you can be spiritually reunited with your little bro, Vinny Bob who is still missed and remembered by myself just the same. Love the entire Felder and Burwell family; they all have my condolences and respect, period!

Rest easy Zip!
