

Wilma J. Gordon

February 7, 1943 - September 7, 2015

Wilma Jean Gordon was born on February 7, 1943 in Shepherdstown, West Virginia. She was the daughter of the late Mary V. Law and Wilbur Gordon. The family relocated to McKeesport, PA and Wilma was educated in the McKeesport Public School System. Also, in her youth, she and her siblings attended Zion Baptist Church. Wilma, being the oldest daughter, had the responsibility of caring for her younger sister, Carol, and especially baby brother, Butch. Her devotion to them would develop a bond that would last a lifetime. Wilma was then, and always the family care giver. She always put the needs of others first. Her caring heart, wisdom, love and devotion would, over the years, keep the family united and strong, She did not work outside of her home but focused on raising her family and caring for her parents as they aged. She found solace in being in her home surrounded by her children and grandchildren. She enjoyed working puzzles, playing cards, babysitting the grandchildren, a good meal and the occasional movie. On September 7, 2015, Wilma Jean Gordon departed this life after a brief illness. She was surrounded by her loving family as she made her transition. She is preceded in death by her sons: Dion and Jaylee Gordon. She leaves to honor and cherish her memory beloved children: Jerald (Charlene) Gordon, Daneen Gordon, and Marilyn "Twiggy" (John) Smarr; 13 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren; siblings: Maurice "Tody" (Sylvia) Law, Carol Ball and devoted youngest brother with whom she shared a special bond, Wayne "Butch" (Franshaw) Gordon; 1 uncle, William "Pauley" (Peggy) Law; nieces, nephews, other family and friends too numerous to mention
